We proceeded by the western road as far as the outlet from Cayuga Lake, where there is a wooden bridge remarkable for its length, above a mile, and thence by the east side of the lake to Aurora, which is charmingly situated on rising ground above the lake, and is considered an eligible place of residence, on account of the beauty of the surrounding scenery, and cheapness of the necessaries of life. The village does not consist of a connected street, or rows of T Auburn prison built i8r7. Mr. S. is in error here. A subsequent reference to the vil lage of Ovid shows that the route was on the eastern side of Seneca Lake. We pursued our journey on the 5th towards Geneva. The only village we passed on our way to Geneva was Ovid, with its handsomely situated church, and fine piece of green turf between the church and hotel. The American villages are generally announced to you by the spires of their churches peeping through the trees. The situation of Geneva on a terrace above the lake is very delightful. as well as commanding, and the village, containing some good houses, and a population of 2000 or 3000, seems an agreeable place of residence. more cheerful looking, and the...
