Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Voyage on Lake Superior in 1826: A Trip to Duluth in 1902 In 1825 General Cass negotiated with the Indians of the Missouri and Mississippi Valleys the famous treaty of the Prairie du Chien, whereby the war between the Sioux and the Chippeways, which had existed for two hundred years, was ended, the United States obtaining a considerable grant of land and the territorial boundaries of each nation were permanently defined. This treaty, which was probably the most important of the many Indian treaties negotiated by General Cass, was formally ratified by the Chippeways one year later, at what is now known as The Treaty of the Fond du Lac. This was accomplished in the summer of 1826, amid the solemn pomp and ceremony of pipe and powwow, at the head-waters of Lake Superior, where General Cass and Colonel McKenney, as government commissioners, with a large following, met the Chippeway chiefs and braves at the American Fur Trading Company's post. Their voyage over the troubled waters of the great lake from Sault Ste...
