WOMEN, IMMIGRATION AND IDENTITIES IN FRANCE

U.K / Berg, 2000. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. No Jacket. This book is the first to address the relationship between gender and immigration in contemporary France and the political and personal issues that affect women of immigrant origin. Focusing on the social and political aspects of women's lives, the book investigates how they are affected by racism and changes in citizenship laws and explores the strategies they use to combat exclusion through movements such as the 'sans-papiers'. Authors go on to discuss ways in which immigrant women and their daughters negotiate their changing cultural identities in relation to their communities of origin and their positions in France, with reference to the Magrebhi family and attitudes to the Islamic headscarf. With 'B & W' photography. A 1st edition, in new condition. (197 pages & 8 pages of perface).
